

Dear Valued Clients,

We are happy to share with you that we have increased the strength of our International Arbitration practice team with a new addition. Mr Nicholas Lum will be joining the firm's International Arbitration practice from 1st July 2011.

Nicholas was practising in the Shanghai office of a large English law firm with an international presence. His practice focuses on arbitration and complex cross-border disputes (with particular emphasis in Asia and Greater China), and he has experience representing state-owned enterprises and large multi-national companies in various matters in different jurisdictions and before numerous arbitration commissions.

We are confident that Nicholas will contribute greatly to our consistent efforts to provide you with the best possible service.

The firm's International Arbitration practice has been growing with the unwavering support of valuable clients. The dedicated arbitration practice was recently highlighted in the Business Times on 12th April 2011.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank you for the recent accolades and awards that the firm has received over the past year. We are grateful for the continued support without which the following would not have been possible.
